Affordable Housing – No Easy Answers

Lore Baker, Statewide Housing and Employment First Coordinator

Independent, integrated housing is everyone's goal but how do you make that happen? Is it even possible? Come and learn about potential resources and how to access them! You will learn about exciting new housing options for your loved one.

The New Futures Initiative™ – A Path to Community-Based Alternative Housing Solutions:

Ann C. Sickon, Executive Director, Center for Independent Futures

Currently, government housing is at capacity and funding is limited. Wait lists for housing and supports are long, and individuals and their families are tired of waiting. Learn more about Center for Independent Futures' step-by-step process to create housing solutions that individuals need and deserve—solutions in their own neighborhoods that make financial sense and a process to build the personal networks that will help them live more independently for years to come.
